

GLOBAL DIALOGUE

Working together to tackle Noncommunicable Diseases (NCDs)

19-21 October 2016
Intercontinental Hotel, BalACLava, Mauritius

Working together to tackle Noncommunicable Diseases (NCDs)

The role of nongovernmental organizations (NGOs), the private sector, philanthropic foundations and academia in supporting Member States' efforts to tackle NCDs as part of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development

Day One: Wednesday 19 October 2016

08:15-09:00	Registration
09:00-10:00	Opening High Level Segment Calling for broader engagement and new approaches to development as we move towards 2030 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How can non-State actors support the implementation of national NCD action plans in the context of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development?
10:00-11:15	Session One: Do non-State actors have a role to play in developing and implementing national multisectoral NCD action plans? Questions and topics to be covered in 'Hard Talk' style interviews with panellists and members of the audience: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Update on the tools to establish national multisectoral action plans • Do non-State actors have a role to play in developing national multisectoral NCD action plans, if so, which? • Do non-State actors have a role to play in implementing national multisectoral NCD action plans, if so, which? • What components, such as leadership, culture, resources, and capacity, influence such engagement?
11:15-11:45	Refreshment break
11:45:-12:30	Multistakeholder workshops: Including non-State actors in NCD frameworks
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-14:45	Session Two: How can non-State actors support the establishment of national multisectoral NCD mechanisms?

	Questions and topics to be covered in ‘Hard Talk’ style interviews with panellists and members of the audience: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Why do only a third of countries have a national multisectoral NCD mechanism? • What governments learned in establishing a national multisectoral NCD mechanism • How can non-State actors strengthen national multisectoral NCD mechanisms? • What components, such as leadership, culture, resources, and capacity, influence such engagement?
14:45-15:15	Refreshment break
15:15-16:00	Multistakeholder workshops: Strengthening whole-of-society approaches
16:00-17:15	Feedback and discussion on the Multistakeholder workshops
17:15-17:30	Summary of the Day by the Co-Chairs
17:30-19:00	Reception

Day Two: Thursday 20 October 2016

08:15-09:00	Registration
09:00-09:15	Recap of Day One by Co-Chairs
09:15-10:30	Session Three: Feedback from the pre-Dialogue caucuses World Economic Forum: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Healthy lives and Non-Communicable Disease Prevention: pathways to strengthen Public Private Cooperation (Medellin, Colombia) • Healthy lifestyles and tackling NCDs in the context of the Fourth Industrial Revolution (Tianjin, China) NCD Alliance: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Addressing NCDs as part of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development – the contribution by Civil Society (Amman, Jordan)

	19th European Health Forum: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Engaging multiple stakeholders and sustainable environments to nurture a life free from NCDs (Gastein, Austria)
10:30-11:00	Refreshment break
11:00-12:30	Sharing messages and engaging all stakeholders in developing and implementing national NCD campaigns This session provides an update on the WHO Global Communications Campaign, including information on how to apply the WHO Global Communications Campaign on NCDs at the regional and national level.
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-14:45	Session Four: When and how to engage and mobilize the private sector to support implementation of national NCD responses Questions and topics to be covered in 'Hard Talk' style interviews with panellists and members of the audience: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> How is conflict of interest perceived by governments and how are they responding? What we learned as governments and private sector, respectively, from engaging Perspectives on industry strategies and tactics interfering with public health, with examples from the tobacco industry What is or should be the role of business associations in supporting efforts to prevent and control NCD?
14:45-15:15	Refreshment break
15:15-16:00	Multistakeholder workshops: Exploring barriers and solutions
16:00-16:45	Feedback and discussion on the Multistakeholder workshop
16:45-17:00	Summary of the Day by the Co-Chairs

Day Three: Friday 21 October 2016

08:15-09:00	Registration
09:00-09:15	Recap of Day Two by Co-Chairs
09:15-10:30	Session Five: How can non-State actors support governments to monitor and evaluate NCD responses? Questions and topics to be covered in 'Hard Talk' style interviews with panellists and members of the audience: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Update on the tool to enable NSAs to measure their contribution to the Global targets 2030 • What we learned as governments from engaging non-State actors to monitor and evaluate progress • What is the role of non-State actors in holding governments accountable to the global accountability framework for NCDs? • Shadow reporting and accountability: the contribution of civil society
10:30-11:00	Refreshment break
11:00-11:45	Multistakeholder workshops: Global accountability
11:45-12:30	Feedback and discussion on the Multistakeholder workshop
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-14:45	Session Six: Forging consensus: The role of non-State actors in implementing government-led national NCD responses This session provides an opportunity for participants to discuss the overall topic of the Global Dialogue in order to reach a consensus on the roles and next steps.
14:45-15:15	Refreshment break
15:15-15:30	Summary of the Day by the Co-Chairs
15:30-16:00	Summary of the Global Dialogue by the Co-Chairs